A seasoned speaker with over thirty years of experience, Laci Tompkins, finds it a total joy to speak about the Lord any chance possible. Tompkins has been a speaker for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and is a trained educator on human trafficking. She has spoken for many women's conferences, banquets, Falls Creek Women's Retreat, FCA's, camps, youth groups, "Modest Is Hottest" girls' events, Disciple Now, coach clinics and many other various events. Laci is currently employed by Anadarko Public Schools where she is the High School Tennis Coach. She also works with the First Baptist Church of Anadarko as her and her husband lead the "I Am" Sunday School class. She has been married 29 years to husband, Jeff Tompkins. They have two children. The Tompkins family motto is "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."
